

GIA FISHER.

Portland /

Los Angeles

503-893-8818

beadedfish@gmail.com

PROFILE

Gia is 14 years old, and an enrolled member of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe. She speaks some Northern Cheyenne words, as well as some Seneca words. She loves being outside, Kpop dancing, and participating in her native culture. Gia wants to be an equine veterinarian for racehorses.

Talents- Boxing, Muay Thai, Powwow Jingle Dress Dancing

EXPERIENCE

April 2021 American Indian Community House of New York w/ Yale University present The Longhouse Pageant

Role of Peace Johns Directed by Tara Moses

March 2021

National Commercial (popsicle brand) Director Ehsan B.

M s s n g P e c e s Production

December 2020 Live Stream Play- Director Tara Moses

Role of Maya in The Longhouse Pageant by Ty Defoe

American Indian Community House NYC

August 2020 Hungry Man Productions/Director Bryan Buckley

Trump Statue Initiative: 14 Year Old Girl, Speaker in Live Art

Installation

Released Mar.2020 Film/First Cow/Director Kelly Reichardt

Featured Extra, Multnomah Girl ,filmed in Portland Oregon

February 2019

Teaser/Sacajawea the Windcatcher/Director Kaaren Ochoa

Nonspeaking Featured Role- Sacajawea as Child.

Awards:

MAY 2021- Recipient of the 1st Inaugural Young Native Actors Award/The Misty Upham Award presented by Yale University Annual YIPAP Festival

Training

02/2021- Yale Indigenous Youth Workshop with Delanna Studi

08/2020- 4/2021 Creative Native Mentorship with Buffy St. Marie

10/2020-12/2020 Native Youth Acting Series at The American Indian Community House with Tanis Paranteau

09/2020-11/2020 Oregon Children's Theater Acting for Film